Comments

Always helpful and puts a lot of effort in explaining equations in a logical step-by-step approach. Pays attention to detail and spends extra time if concepts are not understood due to students with different learning techniques.

Thank you for always answering our questions and trying to make econometrics as understandable as possible. Thank you for going the extra mile to organise more advise and feedback sessions for us to clarify our queries. I appreciate it a lot!

Emanuele Savini is very professional and friendly!

Excellent seminar tutor, makes sure everyone is on the same page throughout
